

Western Pacific Surveillance and Response Licence for publication

Western Pacific Surveillance and Response (the Journal) is an open access journal and requires each author of a contribution to grant the World Health Organization (the Publisher) a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free licence for the term of copyright and any extensions thereof, to publish, re-publish, transmit, sell, distribute and otherwise use the article in the Journal (the Manuscript), in whole or as a part.

The Publisher shall include the following copyright notice with the Manuscript:

"© <Year> <The Authors>; licensee the World Health Organization. This is an open access article distributed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution IGO License (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/3.0/igo/legalcode>), which permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original work is properly cited. In any reproduction of this article there should not be any suggestion that WHO or this article endorse any specific organization, products or services. The use of the WHO logo is not permitted. This notice should be preserved along with the article's original URL."

This licence covers both electronic and print editions of the Journal as well as derivative works in all languages and in all media of expression now known or later developed, and to license or permit others to do so.

In consideration of the publication in Western Pacific Surveillance and Response of my/our contribution:

Manuscript No:

Full title:

As authors, I/we confirm the following:

1. That the Manuscript is an original work, has been written by the stated author(s), has not been published before and is not currently being considered for publication by any other journal;
  - a. If excerpts from copyrighted works owned by third parties are included in the Manuscript, I/we has/have obtained written permission from the copyright owners for all uses as set forth in the Creative Commons Attribution License, and has credited the sources in the Manuscript;
  - b. The Manuscript does not violate or infringe on the rights of any third party or contain any libellous or unlawful statements, and I/we has/have exercised reasonable care to ensure that the Manuscript is accurate; and
  - c. If any personal details or images of patients or research subjects have been used, I/we has/have obtained written permission or consent from the patient (or, where applicable, the next of kin).
2. That any distribution of the Manuscript, such as posting on an institution's website, will include the above copyright notice and appropriate citation for the Journal. The Manuscript shall in no way be used for the promotion of any third party commercial company, its products or services.

3. I/we hereby indemnifies(y) and hold(s) WHO harmless from and against the full amount of any and all claims and liabilities, including legal fees and costs, which are or may be made, filed or assessed against WHO at any time and based on, or arising out of, breach by the Corresponding Author of any of the above warranties.
4. Any dispute relating to the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall, unless amicably settled, be subject to conciliation. In the event of failure of the latter, the dispute shall be settled by arbitration. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the modalities to be agreed upon by the parties or, in the absence of agreement, with the rules of arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce. The parties shall accept the arbitral award as final.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed as a waiver of any of the privileges and immunities enjoyed by WHO under national or international law, and/or as submitting WHO to any national court jurisdiction.

If copyright is held by your employer, please obtain the employer's express authority to grant a non-exclusive licence. If you are a government employee please obtain express authority to grant a non-exclusive licence to publish and exploit subsidiary rights.

If the contributions are not published in either the print or electronic versions of Western Pacific Surveillance and Response within 12 months of acceptance (or otherwise agreed), this agreement shall automatically terminate and all rights shall revert to the copyright owner.

If a contributor is not available please send a copy of this agreement for the individual signature and return it. Signature of the agreement in this way will be as valid as if all contributors signed the same document.

I /we agree to the terms of this Licence Agreement.
